Permission/Medical Release/and Parent Covenant for January 1, 2011 through December 31, 2011:

I, the undersigned parent, give permission for my son/daughter to participate in CPC events. I am aware of and approve of the planned costs, dates, places and activities of these events. I understand the degree of risk (if any) involved in these events and because I trust the adult supervision and my son/daughter, I hereby release Covenant Presbyterian Church and the adult leadership from liability for any injury or problem occurring during participation in these events. I also give permission to have, and will accept financial responsibility for, my son/daughter to be examined and treated by a qualified physician in case of emergency. I understand that I will be contacted as soon as possible concerning any medical or behavioral problem with my child during these activities.
